CONTINUING EDUCATION

Certificates, credentialing and CEU transcript can be found in the final pages of the resume/vitae 2005 – Present. All certificates of training for current and past continuing education credits are maintained in the continuing education files of the practice. Current biennial CEU's are tracked by CEBRoker, as required by the State of Florida, and in accordance with DC licensure requirements can be verified via audits, if/when these occur. Certificates, board approved provider numbers, program syllabi, credentials of presenters, dates of attendance, along with city and location of the CE topics, are available for verification production upon request by any authority so requiring it (for the current and prior LCSW biennials, for the LICSW, and dating back to and including the registered intern licensure periods).

SPECIAL SKILLS OR ATTRIBUTES

Extensive knowledge of a multitude of computer applications: Access®, Excel®, Publisher®, PageMaker®, Power Point®, Outlook®, Word®, Quicken®, Adobe Acrobat®, coding and embedding, animation, video creation and editing software as well as cloud based platforms. With additional work through the University, computer application knowledge includes PDF programs (Adobe Acrobat) for developing, posting, and submitting "user- friendly" online forms (including EHR platforms use and modification recommendations for standardization protocols in practice, supportive onsite services implementation for LCSW's in the US, and onsite School Counseling Program services models); program use also includes a collaborative and/or working knowledge in online synchronous programs, such as Elluminate, Counsol. Website development experience (first site development before branding began was with nettally.com/kloze/index.html in late 1990's; then the site was converted to talkifuwant.com in 2010 still hosted with nettally; in 2019 talkifuwant.com was converted to the word press platform hosted with brightervision). In site transitioning LaRose has been able to preserve a diverse media platform in seemingly competing technological environments, finding ways to engage and coordinate products such as microsoft, google, adobe, movavi, etc. throughout multiple site transitions (including updates to various products, some dating back to the 1990s).

Co-developed database management system for gathering, tracking, and reporting data on 4,000 clients per year (using Access) and developed numerous grant specific reports, tables, queries and forms (see ECHO under Employment). This program improvement work require a developing and comprehensive working knowledge of MS Office Programs.

Developed, implemented and codified program evaluation practices into the School Counseling Services Program\(s\) onsite services delivery with outcomes spanning multiple programs, multiple years, and various providers. School Counseling program evaluations are rare in the US. The program evaluation mechanism was modified after the 2013 year, limited to data gathering beginning in the 2014 academic year (due to three main factors: prior efficacy findings, incremental funding limitations and non-funded report production time constraints). It is believed to be one of the few school counseling programs in the US with evaluation data for multiple years in multiple schools/districts, under varying administrations and providers.

Codified the financial assistance guidelines for a non-profit agency (501C3), as well as created a comprehensive policy and procedure manual standardizing regulations and procedures for client service provisions and personnel training guidelines. Applied for funding, and was awarded funding, from various grant authorities (Private, City and County) and managed the disbursement of various funds (in excess of $100,000; Private, City, County, State, and Federal). Authored original grant requests for a non-profit agency including the solicitation of funds from public and private entities using written research based requests, with public presentations as needed [Grants: Community Human Service Partnership, Presbytery of Florida, Florida Coalition for the Homeless, Emergency Shelter Block Grant(s), Florida State Attorney's Office (Vitamin Settlement Grant)].

Developed evidence based practice validation instruments assessing client satisfaction for services provided by staff comprised of paid professionals and volunteers. Designed staff evaluation protocol and instruments for small non-profit agency. Developed staff training manuals, programs, presentations, and role plays; developed volunteer training manuals, programs, presentations and role plays; presented on the uses of positive language structuring when dealing with negative clients/co-workers/supervisors.

Codified and developed policies and procedures for the Gretna Wellness Center and its newly implemented social work program in conjunction with various public, private, and civic partnership organizations (AHEC, CMO, FAMU-SON, FSU-COM, FSU-CSOW, and Gadsden County Health Department).

CONTINUING EDUCATION TRANSCRIPT

Licensing requirements by the District of Columbia Department of Health mandate security clearance verification at each biennial, including criminal background checks that cover licensee history from all juvenile and adult records/reporting. The DC DOH Board of Clinical Social Work does not (as of 2018) utilize an electronic reporting and verification mechanism for continuing education requirements and records storage/retrieval. All board audits of providers require the production of CEU compliance and certificates in accordance with DC DOH CEU standards, for each biennial where LICSW credentialing occurs.

Licensing biennial CEU requirements are in the State of Florida via electronic reporting and verification mechanisms. CEBroker (the electronic reporting and verification mechanism utilized by the DOH licensing board in FL) requires a paid subscription by providers to record and post all CEU's. In FL it is possible that a non-required CEU will not be logged with the broker gateway without the paid subscription. CEBroker maintains a non-subscription data base of CEU's, containing only the required board approved courses. In FL a provider is limited in making sure the CEU transcript via CEBroker is entirely accurate due to the subscription limitation and requirement. It is, therefore, possible for a provider to have completed required CEU's and for those to appear in the CEBroker portal and for a provider who does NOT subscribe to have additional CEUs that DO NOT APPEAR.

All training, in addition to other educational coursework for LaRose is listed below involving CEU requirements in both jurisdictions. CEU's recorded here are those taken, with the dates of completion, and how obtained; coursework in CEU's often exceed the minimum requirements of licensing as a matter of improved patient care and as a matter of exceeding licensing standards.

All CEU's recorded here are documented with certificates of completion, course syllabi (when provided during presentations), presenter information (with license/educational titles), location, and number of approved hours. The respective records are maintained both digitally and traditionally in paper formats by the office of LaRose. All documentation can be provided upon request, and where required by licensing boards is done so upon demand.

All courses, at the time of completion, were board approved, to meet the licensing requirement for continuing education training. It is possible for board approved CEU providers to offer other courses that are "non-board required." In certain scenarios, it is possible for one CEU approved provider, to be approved in both jurisdictions, thus the coursework may meet the CEU requirements simultaneously. Because both jurisdictions have similar and different CEU requirements it is necessary to have added coursework (even in certain scenarios where the coursework may overlap).

CE Transcript Reporting Errors: Where errors in either the CEBroker transcript exist or where the CE provider reported differently than the certificates indicate, contrary to the course work or hours attended and passed, the Broker has been notified. Such errors are noted in each reporting sequence below with “*”. All CEs recorded here include their associated CE certificates. In scenarios where “general hours” were reported on a certificate, the breakdown of the courses, dates, times, presenters, topics are documented in the course materials maintained by the practice. In the 2019 Renewals for Licenses in both FL and DC the numerous CE errors (as noted) were corrected via Concierge Services arranged in cooperation with CEBroker.

SECURITY CLEARANCES AND BACKGROUND CHECKS

Level II security clearances (state and fed) background checks have occurred on occasion in the course of working in various school districts (other jobs and in volunteer duties) – as required by the affiliated agency. Some clearances are valid for three years, by agency mandate, where the check itself is usually only valid in a 12-month timeframe (not all agencies require annual background checks, thus a background check is not evident from year to year as follows):

2013 – 2014 (tracking #:####78#)

2005 – 2006

Level II background checks pre-date 2005, yet are not listed. Other security clearance history involves residential group home employment and treatment foster home licensing, and in volunteer positions (where specific dates correlate with each related job/position).
